

Colton Village Hall

Christmas Riddle Quiz Competition

Answers

Riddle	Answer
It craves peace and quiet, on a herbaceous diet, avoiding all spotters, beneath Scottish waters.	Loch Ness Monster
So many would be maimed or dead, without the growth upon the bread.	Penicillin
I help to stop it being hard, worn down into a slivered shard, I disappear slow down the hole, don't eat the cake beside the hole.	Soap
I sit there but I'm rarely used, but if my brothers are abused, I take a place upon the way, if not blown up I cannot play.	Spare Tyre
With all your weapons in the bag, behind the perfect numbers lag, address your victim, not a coffee, all in the cause of that far flag.	Golf
Often seen but never spoken, never empty, halt a token. Ending of a visual thought, is by its placement simply wrought.	Full Stop
It's held up as a great example, better if a touch more ample. Ribs that can't breathe fan around, a dryish circle on the ground.	Umbrella
Staple of a generation, spread through every modern nation. Out of Deutschland, long ago, salad meat and all to go.	Hamburger
I'm usually found just underground, I'm greens but I am orange. For good eye sight at night renowned, on G.G. lists they put me.	Carrot
I'm advocated by the snake, to take me was a big mistake, yellow, red, those colours gay, with help to keep the quack away.	Apple
A rank beginner all enjoy, a strike can summon, warning noise. A small sum in reflective glare, may gather those for festive fare.	Gong
A bucket and spade, may be used when it's made, but a bucket and rope, in its daily use cope.	Water Well
Those who haven't have it, in the dark you see.	Nothing
Tallest head above the crowd, unbeaten until fifty three, my head is white, but now it's bowed, lower still than hill R.E.	Everest
In the air or on the ground, it peers about, around and round, the speeding plane, the passing ship, all end up as a little blip.	Radar
Although not living I breathe in, I've got a built in rubbish bin, it's grit and fluff, I'm all about, just plug me in and roll me out.	Vacuum Cleaner
Beneath the sun, above the earth, waves sense in all their motivation, no clouds to mar the midnight view, the gravity of the situation.	The Moon
It's movement simply can't be seen, but see it in a magazine, all dressed in yellow gold apparel, then naked in the groovy barrel.	Bullet
Get me in, to get in, putty get me set in, without me take your pick, a thin re-entrant stick.	Key
Beat without music, pump without sump, have one, you're kinder, without it you'd slump.	Heart

Thank you to every on who took part in this year's completion

Winners Children's Quiz Daisy Lightfoot Adult Quiz Polly and John Macmillan